Presbyterian General Assembly at Knoxville, Tenn.

SECOND AND THIED DAYS. [Reported for the Dispatch.] FRIDAY, May 17, 1878. Five enew members were enrolled, all ruling elders, making the number 136—that is. 71 ministers and 65 ruling elders. The Moderator announced the standing committees and Committee on Synodical The annual reports of the Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, and of the Theological Seminary at Columbia, S. C., were

Rev. R. Mcliwaine, D. D., assistant secretary of the Committee of Sustentation, read the annual reports of the Executive Committee of Sustentation, including statements also with regard to the Evangelistic Fund, the Colored Evangelistic Fund, the Invalid

Fund, and the Relief Fund. Rev. John N. Waddell, D. D., secretary, read the report of the Executive Committee

Dr. Mcliwaine, secretary, read the report of the Executive Committee of Foreign

the first annual report of the Executive Committee for Training Colored Ministers. All these reports, considering the extraordinary pecuniary depression, were re-markably encouraging, showing that the liberality of the people grows as their resources diminish, and that the Christian zeal of the Church is increasing. Rev. S. T. Martin presented a resolution for the appointment of a committee to consider the expediency of devising some plan for simplifying our ecclesiastical machine-ry, diminishing the expenses of our benevolent operations, and increasing the contributions from our churches; and that said committee report to this Assembly. Adopted, and committee appointed. Rev. W. E. Hill offered a resolution calling the attention of Presbyteries to the importance of holding Sabbath-school insti-tutes and conventions in their bounds. Referred to Committee on Sabbath School.

A letter was read from Rev. Dr. J. B. Adger, reporting his attendance as a corresponding delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church of America, and describing in enthusiastic terms his reception by that body.

The stated clerk, Dr. J. R. Wilson, read more than twenty overtures from Presbyte-ries asking for deliverances by the Assembly on various subjects. These were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and when they come back to the Assembly some of them will excite discussion. The Presbytery of Louisiana asks for biennial sessions of the Assembly; the same Presbytery overtures the Assembly not to adopt the new Book. Muhlenburg asks for action on lay evangelism. From one Synod there comes an overture in reference to the expenses of the Executive Committees, and another from the Synod of Alabama in regard to the use of vituperative and denunciatory language by the editors of our religious newspapers. Two overtures asked that the term "stated supplies" be dropped from the roll of ministers. Another asks that the Assembly elect its stated and permanent clerks every four years. Another asks that the new Book be not adopted except by a vote of two thirds of the people. Another asks for a deliverance on the observance of the Sabbath.

At 122 P. M., after fifteen minutes spent in devotional exercises, Assembly adjourned to to-morrow at 9 A. M., so as to give an opportunity to the various committees to meet this afternoon.

The stated clerk of the Assembly is Dr. J. R. Wilson; the permanent clerk, Dr. William Brown; the temporary clerk, Dr.

Dr. Armstrong preached last night on the "Effectual, Fervent Prayer of the Right-eous," and Dr. B. T. Lacy to-night on "Jesus Christ, the Same Yesterday, To-day, and Forever." SATURDAY 18TH-THIRD DAY.

An appeal was read from the Waldeusian Church, in Europe, asking aid from the Protestants of Britain and America in the support of their pastors.

A complaint was read from the Presby tery of Louisiana setting forth that debate on the minority report in that Presbytery on the new Book and all discussion on the

Dr. G. D. Armstrong, chairman of the Committee on the Revised Book, stated that, owing to failure in the mails or some other cause, the answers of some of the Presbyteries had not been received. As officially reported the vote of the Presbyteries was a tie. He asked that the committee be allowed to receive the certified statements of commissioners as to the action of their Presbyteries. It was evident that the Book would now have to go back to the Presbyteries, but these statements were required for the information of the Assembly as to the vote. Dr. Dabney was opposed to the use of any documents by the committee which were not official, especially on this question.

Dr. Bullock agreed with Dr. Dabney. Dr. Armstrong explained that the committee would put in a separate roll the votes which were not officially stated, and the request was granted. A communication was received announcing the death, on the 14th, of Mr. Thomas C. Perry, of Abbeville, S. C., president of the Board of Trustees of the Assembly. Referred to the Committee on the Report of the Board of Trustees, with a request to report a minute expressive of the high regard of the Assembly for Mr. Perry, and his fidelity as an officer of this body.

Rev. Dr. Talbot W. Chambers, of the Reformed Church in America, presented the salutations of their General Synod in an able address, to which Dr. Peck, the moderator, replied in brief and cordial terms. Dr. A. S.-Hunt, a messenger from the American Bible Society, was heard in an interesting speech, and it was ordered that a committee be appointed to bring in a suitable responsive minute. The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a reply to the overture from the Synod of Alexandria on the subject of vituperative and denunciating language by the religious press. The report recommends that if the offences of editors be such as the overture represents the sessions of their churches and their Presbyteries are the proper courts to take cognizance of the same.

Dr. S. Robinson addressed the Assembly in defence of strong language on certain occasions by editors. Colonel F. W. Webb, of Alabama, is now replying to Dr. Robinson at 114 A. M.

All the debates will be found in full in the "Assembly's Record," published here daily by the Knoxville Tribune, and in the religious newspapers of the Church. I propose to give you only a brief synopsis. [By Telegraph.] KNOXVILLE, TENN., May 20.—The Presbyterian General Assembly South this morning received Christian greetings from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at Atlanta, Ga. A resolution was adopted expressing confidence in the workings of the American Bible Society, and urging ministers and churches to cooperate with and aid it by
